

LITIGATION & ARBITRATION REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represented several real estate developers in a multitude of lawsuits with purchasers of pre-construction units in several prominent condominium developments in Miami, dealing with federal and state disclosure and consumer protection laws.
- Represented several banks in commercial foreclosure matters.
- Represented U.S. Department of State contractor in connection with disputes before the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals under the Contract Disputes Act.
- Assisted in the representation of a former vice president of an international brokerage firm against the former employer before the American Arbitration Association involving failure to pay commissions and spreads pursuant to a contractual agreement on credit-linked note transactions. Following four days of final hearings, the Panel awarded a monetary judgment of almost $1,000,000.
- Assisted in the representation of foreign client against an international banking institution in a federal court matter involving unauthorized fraudulent wire transfers from the client's account totaling almost half a million dollars. On the eve of the trial, defendant reached a resolution involving the return of the principal amount, plus payment of attorney's fees and costs.
- Represented a partner in a breach of partnership agreement dispute before the American Arbitration Association. Following a final hearing, the Panel awarded a monetary judgment of half a million dollars, including punitive damages, which was upheld during confirmation proceedings in the circuit court.
- Assisted in causing the vacation and eventual voluntary dismissal of several final judgments totaling nearly $2,000,000 against a debtor in bankruptcy after a single deposition.
- In a trademark infringement dispute involving an infringing webpage, successfully obtained a lock down and denial of access of the infringing webpage after service of a cease and desist letter on webpage hosting provider and infringing party.
- Represented large multinational company in complex information technology litigation, including in a successful evidentiary hearing regarding complex e-discovery disputes.